The forty-two year old cleaner stepped into the room. Her part-time job did not prepare her for the shock. A body lying on the floor. She nearly fainted. Then she called her full-time supervisor. Phew. At least she had help. The twenty-three year old stopped. She stared.

Her skin turned a whiter shade of pale. Pulling herself together she dialled 999. The middle-aged operator asked her who she wanted.

She asked for the police. Her father-in-law was a policeman but he worked in a top-notch ten-year-old department in another constabulary. He was only part-time these days. Once the police had been called they started looking for the murder weapon.

The cleaner pointed to the large machine in the corner. On the X-ray machine was a note. A coded note. One they could not understand.

They made a half-hearted attempt to read it. Twenty-five minutes passed. The police arrived sirens blaring. An ambulance also turned up. The cleaner recognised her ex-boyfriend who was the driver.

Twenty-two minutes later the police began their investigation in the murder at the health spa
